HOW IT WORKS

FOR SUPPLIERS

Promote Your Business The Way You Want

Fully customize your listing with your own imagery and information. Manage your own listing with updates and see your own analytics at a glance on how popular your business is. You can even get in touch with us to help you send the right message.

Bring Procurement Opportunities To You

Procurement professionals can search and communicate with you directly. Network, develop new relationships and possibilities with every tier in the social housing and local authority supply chain. We bring our connections from some of the largest Housing Associations and Buyers to ProcureCo to learn more about the Suppliers we work with and support our purpose to foster Social Value.

Featured Suppliers Supporting Social Value

Get More With ProcureCo

Becoming a sponsor gets to showcase your social value contribution and be noticed in this competitive market. With access to our events you can access everything from scheduled meetings with procurement professionals, seminars, workshops, learn the best practice, skills and tools to successfully navigate the bid and tender process.

FOR SOCIAL HOUSING & PUBLIC SECTORS

Expanding Your Networks

An opportunity for you to explore new working relationships. Engage with suppliers directly through our platform, discover their background, services, history and much more at a glance in their profile. Manage interactions within your own account and even review suppliers to showcase their work with you. Get meeting a selection of existing and new suppliers that our Partners and ourselves are supporting to become bid-ready.

Keeping Your Residents In Mind

You can easily find suppliers that are verified as supporters and contributors of Social Value, they're the ones that promote opportunities for local community residents alongside our other programme the London Jobs Fairs, including structured work experience, mentoring or even a training and development opportunity.

Become A Partner With ProcureCo

As a Partner you can get access to your own account with ProcureCo and manage current and future procurement prospects with the suppliers that you are developing relationships with directly. Join us at our events and get scheduled meetings with potential suppliers, learn more about best practice, and promote ongoing improvement to supplier bid quality. Our workshops and sessions are also CPD certified, and count towards CIPS Chartered status.
